ARE YOU DEAF? ANY HEAD NOISES?

ALL CASES OF DEAFNESS OR HARD HEARING ARE NOW CURABLE

By our new invention. Only those born deaf are incurable.

HEAD NOISES CEASE IMMEDIATELY.

F. A. WERMAN, OF BALTIMORE, SAYS:

Baltimore, Md., March 30, 1902.
 Gentlemen:—Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion.
 About five years ago my right ear began to ring, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely.
 I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would then cease, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever.
 I then saw your advertisement accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and to-day, after five weeks, my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. I thank you heartily and beg to remain
 Very truly yours,
 F. A. WERMAN, 720 S. Broadway, Baltimore, Md.

Our treatment does not interfere with your usual occupation.

A SECRET SIN.

BY A. M. BELLERBY.

"BUT supposing it is mixed with sin," I said defiantly, "and supposing that sin is for others, and so woven into our lives that we cannot let it go."

"Even for others we must not sin," he answered firmly; and I cannot imagine your doing wrong for your own sake, Mrs. Repton."

Again I bent my head over my work, unable to meet the steadfast gaze of the man I had so injured.

"You don't know anything about it," I answered, trying to speak lightly, and then, with a tremendous effort, went on to the point I had been unable to reach before; "But you, too, have had trouble, Miss Hurst tells me."

"Yes; chiefly of my own making. The rest is merely a money trouble."

"Merely? Most people think that had enough."

"It does not seem so to me. I have enough for my needs, and not a being in the world dependent on me. It is true I am being kept out of property that is rightly mine."

"Then why do you not put in your claim? Do you not hate those who are keeping you out?"

"God forbid! I pity them from my heart. They need it more than I. Mrs. Repton, are you not feeling well?" he asked, catching sight of my ghastly pallor.

"It is nothing," I answered faintly, my hand clutching at my breast, for my heart seemed to have stopped beating.

He threw the window open near me, and, laying me tenderly back in my chair, took eau de cologne from the mantel piece and bathed my face gently as a woman might have done; yet I shrank from that soothing touch as if it had stung me.

"I am better, thank you," I gasped. "Please leave me alone."

"You make yourself suffer too much," he said, in strange tones. Seeing his presence distressed me, he gave me one glance of unutterable pity and left me to suffer alone.

In that hour I realized that I loved the man I had so deeply injured, with a love of which I had supposed myself incapable. The hour in which I had betrothed myself to William Repton had seemed to poison all affection within me.

I went to my room, leaving a message for Miss Hurst, when she should return, saying that I had a headache—which was very true—and should be glad to lie down for a while.

The servant to whom I gave the message handed me a letter at the same moment. It was from my mother—my poor mother, for whose sake I had sinned and suffered so much that all daughterly feeling was turned to gall and bitterness within me. She wrote so happily, so brightly. The boys were doing well at Eton, and the girls at Cheltenham—she herself had gone to live at the latter place—and the only drawback to her happiness was that her darling Margaret was not there with her.

Then followed a piece of news that nearly stunned me. It was hidden in a great number of words; but the meaning was clear enough—a Colonel Hill, of whom she had frequently spoken, had asked her to change her widowed state, and she had consented to do so.

"For you know, Margaret," she went on, "Annie and Muriel are away so much they are hardly companions for me; and since you have deserted me I have been lonely; and Colonel Hill is very rich."

I laid down the letter and tried to think. The fresh shock drove away my headache quite suddenly. I had not deemed it possible that my mother could forget my father after less than three years of widowhood—yet why not?

She was pretty enough still to take any middle-aged man's fancy, for she had been married very young, and no doubt she had felt my desertion.

Then another phase of the question presented itself to me. If this Colonel Hill were really rich, if he cared for my mother for her own sake, she would have no further need of the money my guilt had secured to her.

I might make restitution to the man I had injured. It would mean shame for me beyond description, but oh, the relief of unburdening my overwrought conscience!

That he was good and merciful I knew, and I would implore him, for my family's sake, not to take legal proceedings, not to expose my felony. How publicity was to be avoided I did not stop to ask myself, nor did I wait for second and calmer thoughts.

With a hand that could scarcely guide the pen to form legible characters, I somehow scrawled a few words, begging Henry Cooper to come without delay on a matter of the last importance.

Then, ringing the bell for a messenger to take the note, I received the welcome news that Miss Hurst had sent a message to say she was detained, and would not be back till evening.

So my way was made easier for me.

I went down to the morning room, and, heedless what the servants might say, gave orders that if Mr. Cooper came we were not to be interrupted.

Then I paced up and down, waiting, my mind in too much of a turmoil to let my body rest.

In half an hour the servant returned, saying that Mr. Cooper would follow immediately; and in a few minutes he was in the room, asking if I felt better.

"Oh, I am well enough," I answered feverishly; "but I have something to say to you—a horrible confession to make. Sit—stand somewhere where you will not see me. I shall die with my shame!"

He went to the window, turning nearly away from me; and I sank into a chair, clutching tightly at its arms.

"Tell me first," I gasped out, "you are William Repton's cousin, aren't you—Godfrey Henry Cooper Knight?"

I saw him start slightly. "Yes. Only I dropped the two names when I enlisted."

"He left everything he had to you, and I burnt the will!" I blurted out, for speech well nigh failed me.

"I was afraid you had. I knew he had made a will in my favor," he answered, as quietly and gently as if it were a matter of no consequence.

"You knew it—you knew what I had done, and you kept silence?" I felt as if I were sinking into a sea of bewilderment.

"I guessed it. I knew you had neither married my cousin nor done this for your own sake, and I could do without his money. I felt sure you would make confession at some time, and I knew I could claim my half share in any case, as Repton was believed to have made no will."

[CONCLUDED NEXT WEEK.]

A Profitable Investment.

"I was troubled for about seven years with my stomach and in bed half my time," says E. Domick, Somerville, Ind., "I spent about $1,000 and never could get any thing to help me until I tried Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. I have taken a few bottles and am entirely well." You don't live by what you eat, but by what you digest and assimilate. If your stomach doesn't digest your food you are really starving. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure does the stomach's work by digesting the food. You don't have to diet; eat all you want. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure cures all stomach troubles.

Tiny Tots Journey 6,000 Miles.

Two children direct from Portugal passed through Union Station Friday morning bearing tidings of their mother's murder to the father in far-away Hawaii. They are traveling a distance of 6,000 miles.

The little ones reached St. Louis at 8 o'clock. They were delivered to Matron Hunter by the trainmen. On the boy's coat was a tag bearing this information:

"Antonio de Nasementio and sister, Marie Zulmida Evangelina. Billed to G. S. Bell, 65 Jackson street, San Francisco."

The other side of the card bore the advertisement of a steamship company.

The boy is apparently 9 years old and the girl 4. Neither can speak nor understand a word of English.

Pinned to their ticket is an order from the eastern representative of J. D. Spreckles & Bro. for transportation from San Francisco to Honolulu. A note says the father, Antonio, works on a Spreckles sugar plantation, and that he does not know of the coming of the children.

An interpreter was found to read the letter the boy carried. It stated that Anita had met death at the hands of Guido, and that masses had been paid for the repose of her soul. The children are sent to the father because the writer believes when he hears the news he will never return to Portugal. The paper is signed M.

Antonio and Marie were put on the morning Wabash train for Kansas City.

Senate Regaled.

During Senator Bailey's fight in the senate on Monday for the rights of the State of South Carolina he had tilts with many of the republican leaders. He silenced all comers. When Senator Hoar flung some legal questions at him he said suavely:

"Of course, when the venerable senator from Massachusetts asks about the law the question answers itself. The venerable senator from Massachusetts is so distinguished a lawyer that even if I thought him wrong I should hesitate to say so."

Then Senator Foraker took a hand.

"That may be the law in Texas," he said, "but it is not in other states I have ever heard of."

"There is a great deal of law the senator from Ohio has not heard of," said Senator Bailey, pleasantly.

Foraker was rash. He came back again:

"Undoubtedly, and especially in Texas, from what the senator has said."

Bailey played with him.

"I had the misfortune once to try a case in Ohio, and I learned some remarkable law there."

"I have no doubt you learned something before you got through with it," Foraker flashed back.

The republicans laughed.

"Yes," drawled Bailey; "if there is so much to be learned there I commend the senator from Ohio to stay there as much as his senatorial duties will allow."

And Foraker sat down.—Washington Cor. New York World.

Many Wonder.

Many wonder how it is that pin worms and stomach worms get into little children, or how a tape worm, 300 feet long, can get in and exist and grow inside of a man, as it sometimes happens. They may well wonder, for it is a great mystery. However, many now know from experience that Mother's Worm Syrup will rid one of intestinal worms and greatly improve the health after the worms have been destroyed and expelled. It is absolutely a harmless remedy to take, and as it only costs 25c., all should try it who suspect worms to be the cause of their ill health.

In about a week from now the Schley case will be taken up again with all the old-time vigor and bitterness.—Chicago Record-Herald.

THE HERALD.

SPENCER COOPER, : : : Editor.

HAZEL GREEN, KY.
THURSDAY, March 13, 1902.

LEXINGTON is in a position to capture all of the trade of this section, and when it is understood that this trade is considerable in quantity and cash in quality it looks strange that the merchants of that city can not be made to see it. From Cannel City to Lexington the only town that can possibly compete with the latter place is Winchester. Now, if the merchants of Lexington can make better prices and show a larger line of goods in the various departments of commerce than her smaller rival the sentence which started this article is a reality. But the merchants of Lexington must ask for it. Never was divine injunction more applicable to the every day affairs of life than in this instance—"ask and ye shall receive." Invite the people of Frozen Creek, Lee City, Cannel City, Caney, Neola, Daysboro, Hazel Green, Grassy Creek, Ezel, Maytown, Stillwater, and the intermediate country to come to you and buy, and the suddenness with which your trade is augmented will be astounding. Mt Sterling has heretofore been the mart for this part of the mountains, but the advent of the Ohio and Kentucky railroad changes the aspect altogether. Apropos THE HERALD is the ideal medium through which to invite this trade, as it is "the oldest, most widely circulated, most popular and most quoted paper in the mountains," and enjoys a handsome circulation in the territory above named. Spring is just now upon us and this is the time to prove our assertion. Every man who avails of the opportunity will thank us for the advice, and his revenue will be greatly increased. Try it and see for yourself that what we say is absolute truth.

THE people of Campton last week held an indignation meeting as will be seen by reading the column headed "Indignation," etc. That is all well and good so far as it goes, but it stops short of the mark. Let the gentlemen whose names are appended to that article wait upon the young man who promulgated these preposterous prevarications and warn him that in event he ever indites any other line of the same purport he will receive a coat of tar and feathers, and have then and there the materials with which to do the coating. That will indeed have more effect than all the resolutions they might pass in a month. The fabricator is unknown to us except by certain earmarks, but so plain are they that the people doubtless have no doubt of his identity and they should act at once. Besides being scandalous these stories are exceedingly silly, and altogether they are calculated to do our county inestimable injury. Treat him to a coat of tar well besprinkled with feathers and there'll be no more fakes perpetrated.

ENGLAND is afraid that some deep and dark purpose, endangering the life of the republic, is concealed by the visit of Prince Henry. This country will make a costly mistake if it trusts any European nation too far, but if we had to choose between England and Germany it would be safer to trust the latter.

WEBSTER FLANAGAN, of Texas, who gained notoriety at a republican national convention by his "What-are-we-here-for?" has scored on the Roosevelt target and got himself reappointed collector of internal revenue for the Third Texas district. He turned the trick during a personal visit to Washington.

HELLO! What's the matter with the republican Minnesota state senate, which has by a vote of 36 to 5 adopted a memorial protesting against the U. S. permitting Great Britain to buy mules in this country to be used in the war in South Africa as violation of a treaty?

THERE'S a row in Pierpont Morgan's steamship trust, and the kicker is the big Cunard Steamship Company, which threatens to start a rate war. Go it Cunard! go it Pierpont! Perhaps if you fight long enough and hard enough a trip to Europe may get within the reach of us all.

'RAH! for ex-Gov. Hogg, of Texas, for refusing to wear court dress knee-breeches, sword, etc.—even to see the King of England. He told them that if he couldn't see the King without rigging himself out in such gewgaws he would not see him at all.

THE judge of U. S. court at Cincinnati had his nerve as well as his common sense along when he decided in effect that the Chicago board of trade was about as much of a gambling system as a company that runs "bucket shops" only.

GREAT SCOTT! Will wonders never cease, or is the story cabled from London that King Edward demands the strictest morality in all the plays he attends merely a lie? We find it difficult to associate morality of any sort with Eddie's record.

THE Boer envoys are again in this country. They will find the people sympathetic, as they have been all the time, and the administration so tied up with English diplomacy that it has to pretend indifference, whatever its feeling may be.

It is not surprising that the Filipinos should not be satisfied with the 25 per cent tariff concession on their products sent to this country, given by the bill that has just passed congress. They should either be given free trade with us or nothing.

THE civil service dodge, otherwise known as the permanent census bureau bill, will make Mr. Roosevelt get down on either the spoilsmen or the civil service reformers side of the fence.

Keep It in Your Home, And when the bowels fail to act properly, take a dose of LYON'S LAXATIVE SYRUP—It acts gently but effectually on the kidneys, liver and bowels; will keep your system in good working order and make your complexion clear.

On each evening he will illustrate the work with his splendid stereopticon and moving pictures. On Saturday afternoon he will deliver an address before the C. W. B. M. Aux. of Hazel Green Christian church. All who heard him here last March will hear him this time and every one else will want to hear him.

Stricken by Paralysis. W. J. Wallis of Consolation neighborhood had a stroke of paralysis about two weeks ago, but recovered and had been about in usual health since until a few days ago. He was again stricken with paralysis on Tuesday morning and died within 15 minutes. He ate a hearty breakfast and seemed quite cheerful. He was at the time under treatment of Dr. Centor, who being asked his condition that morning replied that he was getting along nicely. Only an hour or two afterward the news came that he had died suddenly from a paralytic stroke and it was so sudden as to shock every one. He leaves a wife and several children, all of whom save Miss Minnie are married, and to the sorrowing ones THE HERALD goes out in sympathy.

Ex-Sheriff A. T. Combs was the guest of Judge Pieratt overnight Tuesday, and told us on Wednesday morning that people generally were mistaken as to the identity of the writer of the sensational articles emanating from Campton. Two young men of that place are the authors, and it appears that they were just trying their hands for the fun of the thing. Be that as it may they should be requested to let up or the county will soon have a name abroad so unsavory that a stranger will hesitate to come within its confines. Stop it, and stop it without further ado.

Baby's First Clothes.

In providing the tiny garments for a baby's first wardrobe only the softest and daintiest of materials should be used. The clothes may be as exquisite as one pleases, but elaboration should be considered the least important point, and hand sewing should be employed wherever possible. The April Delineator has an article upon the preparation of an infant's first outfit that will be of distinct value to those to whom the subject is one that demands consideration. The various garments are described and illustrated in detail and the materials and decoration fully discussed.

Robert P. Kash of McCausey is growing in grace if we are to judge from what we hear of him from visitors to that place. It is said that within about four months he has handled upward of 100,000 pounds of flour, and our informant says he now has 80,000 pounds. He believes in advertising and has told others that "ourselves that his ad in THE HERALD has brought him a big trade. We are glad of it and desire to say that what we can do to further his interests will be cheerfully done. Keep a clear head and an honest heart, Bobby, and you will some day be a merchant prince. So mote it be."

STOPS PAIN

Athens, Tenn., Jan. 27, 1901. Ever since the first appearance of my menses they were very irregular and I suffered with great pain in my hips, back, stomach and legs, with terrible bearing down pains in the abdomen. During the past month I have been taking Wine of Cardui and Thedford's Black-Drum, and I passed the monthly period without pain for the first time in years.

What is life worth to a woman suffering like Nannie Davis suffered? Yet there are women in thousands of homes to-day who are bearing those terrible menstrual pains in silence. If you are one of these we want to say that this same will bring you permanent relief. Consult yourself with the knowledge that 1,000,000 women have been completely cured by Wine of Cardui. These women suffered from leucorrhoea, irregular menses, headache, backache, and bearing down pains. Wine of Cardui will stop all these aches and pains for you. Purchase a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui to-day and take it in the privacy of your home.

THE SOUTH

Fifty Cents a Year—Less Than a Penny a Number.

THE SOUTH'S LITERARY WEEKLY

Published at Atlanta, Ga.—Circulation Over 50,000.

THE SUNNY SOUTH is the Great Literary Weekly of the South. It is devoted to Literature, Romance, Fact and Fiction, and gives the best of all that is current in its field. Among its contributors the most noted southern writers appear—Joel Chandler Harris, Harry Stillwell Edwards and others of growing fame. Serial stories from Anthony Hope, Maurice Thompson, Sidney R. Crockett, Mrs. George Corbitt and Arthur W. Marchmont have appeared, and others are in waiting from the pen of authors of national note. A short story contest brought out nearly five hundred splendid short stories, all worthy a place in THE SUNNY SOUTH's readable columns. Other contests are contemplated that will successfully exploit the ripening field of talent that only needs such fostering to illustrate the wealth that is shy to assert itself.

THE SUNNY SOUTH teems with the life of the great south. The genial sunshine warms over into activity, and the season is never cold enough to check the hand of industry. The paper comes fragrant with the breath of the magnolia and pine, and gives out the very air of the orange, palm and bay. The beauty and pathos, the romance and mystery of the land where the corn stores up the golden sunshine and the cotton whitens in the moonlight, will be given in the well-filled columns of this fascinating weekly.

The subscription price is Only Fifty Cents a year, alike to all persons, agents, newspapers, postmasters and every one else. Clubs of five, accompanied by the full $2.50, entitle the club reader to the paper one year gratis.

Send on a Postal Card the names of six of your neighbors who would appreciate the opportunity to read a copy of The Sunny South, and one sample will be mailed free. You can get your club of five out of these very people.

THE SUNNY SOUTH, since over 80,000 American homes now; and during 1902 is sure to be welcomed in fully as many more homes, as the great weekly feast of good things, the Southern Literary Weekly, whose columns for 1902 will be the most readable of all the papers that come to you.

What are Humors?

They are vitiated or morbid fluids coursing the veins and affecting the tissues. They are commonly due to defective digestion but are sometimes inherited. How do they manifest themselves? In many forms of cutaneous eruption, salt rheum or eczema, pimples and boils, and in weakness, languor, general debility. How are they expelled? By

SCOWARDICE SPELLING.

The very word fills one with disgust. Show me a coward and I will show you a boy or man that isn't fit for anything, for a coward can not be what he wants to be, and of course he isn't to any one else. Take a boy that is a coward, and you will find in him anything but honor and true manhood; for a coward is afraid to tell the truth and afraid to do the thing that's right when it comes before him; for such a time will come that we must publicly take our stand for right or wrong regardless of what the world may say or think of us. A coward is afraid to face the world when hard times come. A brave man or woman will never falter or fall back when great calamities come upon them, but a coward will fall back; some commits suicide, some try the rum-shop, and there run his race, but there comes a time that he wants to stop for he didn't intend to go to this extent, only thought he would drink until things brightened up a little; was not brave enough to face his troubles alone or to ask God for help instead of the liquor, and then he did not have enough brave manhood about to say "no" when old chums would ask him to drink. Cowardice and bravery does not just mean fighting and not fighting it means forbearance, patience and honor; for it takes a brave man to be this, and it was the true brave men that made our country free, that was not afraid to take their stand for right even should it cost them their lives. Now boys if you want to be brave and not a coward you will do the thing that you know is right no matter what it costs you under any circumstances, and when you make up your mind to quit a bad habit, be brave enough to stand to your word no matter how much your company may laugh and make fun of you—be brave and stand firm.

Help... Nature

Babies and children need proper food, rarely ever medicine. If they do not thrive on their food something is wrong. They need a little help to get their digestive machinery working properly.

SCOTT'S EMULSION OF COD LIVER OIL WITH HYPOPHOSPHITES OF LIME & SODA will generally correct this difficulty.

If you will put from one-fourth to half a teaspoonful in baby's bottle three or four times a day you will soon see a marked improvement. For larger children, from half to a teaspoonful, according to age, dissolved in their milk, if you so desire, will very soon show its great nourishing power. If the mother's milk does not nourish the baby, she needs the emulsion. It will show an effect at once both upon mother and child.

INDIGNATION

Meeting of Citizens of Campton, Who Condemn the Liar About Our Affairs,

And Pass a Series of Resolutions Governing the Case. But They Know Him and Should "Tar" Him.

CAMPTON, KY., March 5, 1902.

To the Editor of THE HERALD:

Owing to the fact that of late some party or parties have had published in several daily papers some very fallacious, malignant and sensational news articles about the doings of some of our people, viz: "The Moore Bigamy Case," "The Lena Williams Gold Mine Discovery," "The Young Men's Suicide Club," and the "Faulkner-Napier Pitched Battle," all which were falsely fabricated, quite a number of the representative citizens of this community met in the courthouse Tuesday, the 4th inst., and passed the following resolutions, which will apply with equal force and effect to all the above fakes, viz:

WHEREAS, The citizens of Wolfe county, in mass meeting assembled, in order to give expression of our feelings as well as to reply to the following false and scandalous news article published in the Cincinnati Post and other daily papers on the 28th ultimo, viz:

EIGHT WERE SHOT IN BATTLE.

One Hundred Armed Men Now Guard the Campton (Ky.) Jail.

Officers Surprised Prisoners While They Were Dressing the Wounds of Leaders, Injured in the Former Fight.

CAMPTON, KY., Feb. 28.—(Special.)—Sheriff T. F. Stamper and posse today arrested the gang that fought a pitched battle in the yard of Mrs. J. G. Taulbee, at Vortez, at Ben Harris' distillery, seven miles from the place where the battle occurred. Six of the gang and two of the posse were wounded. Stamper and his men followed the trail of blood to the distillery, where they found Green Baker, Tom Owsley, Wesley Peyton, John Strickland, Theodore Montgomery, Sid Gillespie, Walter Reinhart, David Blair, Adam Stages, Back Wooten, William Newmeyer, Ben Fickett, Arkell Rodgers and Jeff Townsend dressing the wounds of their leaders, Clay Napier and John Faulkner.

They were surprised by the sheriff and his men, who rushed at them with drawn weapons, but the gang at once fired upon the officers and wounded two of the posse slightly. The sheriff and posse returned the fire, wounding Back Wooten, Noah Ratliffe, William Newmeyer, Henry Barnette, Arkell Rodgers and Jeff Townsend. It is thought that Wooten and Townsend will die. Nathan Greer, an innocent bystander, was wounded in the arm. The prisoners were brought here and lodged in jail. Wooten, Townsend, Napier and Faulkner, who could not be moved, were left in custody of a strong guard. Napier and his followers and Faulkner and his followers made friends soon after the battle in Mrs. Taulbee's yard. A crowd is gathering on the street in front of the jail, carrying Winchester rifles, and mob violence is feared. One hundred well armed men are guarding the jail.

Therefore be it resolved—

First, That after having investigated the foregoing article we find that it is untrue and unfounded. There was no battle fought, no one wounded, no one arrested, no one placed in jail, no one on guard at the jail, no assemblage of people, armed or unarmed, near or about the jail. Only three of the above named "warriors" reside in the county, and the two opposing "feudalists" are peaceable young men of the county, who have never figured in any lawless outbreaks.

Second, That we condemn in unmeasured terms these newspaper correspondents who are so vigilant in fabricating and reporting fakes and sensational falsehoods to the injury and discredit of the county, presumably for the purpose of making a few dollars in money.

Third, That the HAZEL GREEN HERALD, and all other papers that have published this sensational article, be requested to publish these resolutions.

C. C. FULKS, County Attorney. J. W. CONGLETON, County Judge. W. S. TUTT, County Clerk. J. F. VANSANT, Circuit Clerk. J. B. LITTLE, Jailor. J. C. LYKINS, W. B. DUFF, Attorneys.

Logan Fallen, formerly a citizen of this county, but at present a resident of Wilmer, Texas, and Miss Laura Wilson, daughter of Joe Lee Wilson, were married at the residence of the bride's parents, on Gillmore, Wednesday afternoon (yesterday) at 2 o'clock, Rev. Frank Pres Wilson officiating.

The Caney side of the big tunnel caved in on Sunday night for 20 or 25 feet, which prevented trains from running on Monday, and near Cannel City a landslide including an immense rock and heaps of mud.

Caney is in the midst of a measles epidemic and one or two deaths have resulted.

Will Jones well known here and who married Miss Bonny Kash, was drowned near Carrollton, Ky., on the 28th of February. He and his family lived at Jeffersonville, Ind., and he had a job on a tow-boat plying between Louisville and Pittsburg. While coaling the boat from a barge in tow the wheelbarrow he was running slipped from the stage plank and carried him over. Six of the crew witnessed the accident, but his body was not recovered. Gardner Jones, his father, took his wife and two children with him to his home in Washington county.

Three of the Caudle boys of Caney enrolled in school last week. They are sons of the twins.

J. W. Taulbee made a flying trip to Jackson Thursday of last week and returned the same day.

Misses Maud and Eliza Taulbee, after being snowbound for several days, came back to school Monday.

Ye scribe spent Wednesday night of last week with Miss Pearl Day of your town, and had a pleasant visit.

Ed. Watson of Caney, and Mr. McClure of Grassy, are among the new pupils who have recently enrolled at the academy.

South Arnett, one of the Hazel Greene academy pupils staid over night Thursday with Creed Oney of this place. We were glad to have South with us.

Miles Fallen of Lacy creek passed through this section one day last week en route to James Biese, and while there bought a sewing machine from Miss Cornie.

Misses Callie Oney and Lula Taulbee took in the entertainment at Jackson on the night of the 22nd at the S. P. Lees institute given in honor of Washington's birthday.

A nice little bunch of cattle passed through here Monday. Some of our cattle men would do well to go to Reussau, Breathitt county, to buy cattle, as there are over one hundred in that vicinity, and most, if not all, for sale.

Mr. Rogers, who has been attending a medical college in that city, is made defendant in a breach of promise suit brought by Miss Joannah Bush of Torrent. He was released under bond to await the action of the next grand jury.

A few worthless characters of this place who pretend to represent some of the leading newspapers of the country in the capacity of news correspondents, in their greed for news have lost all respect for themselves and the community by wilfully and maliciously fabricating a lot of uncalculated lies, and having them printed in daily papers as special dispatches, portraying the blood-curdling scenes being enacted around the town of Campton; and describing the terrible malignity of the Faulkner-Napier feud. This already world famous mountain feud exists only in the imaginary minds of these few amateur newspaper correspondents, who have chosen falsehood for their theme, and founded their theory on the walls of misrepresentation. Such "trash" tends only to degrade the community in the eyes of the deceived public, and will add another chapter to our erroneous history of blood-thirstiness. The papers printing such sensational dispatches should question the char-

GREATEST FAMILY WEEKLY

THE people of Campton last week held an indignation meeting as will be seen by reading the column headed "Indignation," etc. That is all well and good so far as it goes, but it stops short of the mark. Let the gentlemen whose names are appended to that article wait upon the young man who promulgated these preponderous prevarications and warn him that in event he ever indites any other line of the same purport he will receive a coat of tar and feathers, and have then and there the materials with which to do the coating. That will indeed have more effect than all the resolutions they might pass in a month. The fabricator is unknown to us except by certain earmarks, but so plain are they that the people doubtless have no doubt of his identity and they should act at once. Besides being scandalous these stories are exceedingly silly, and altogether they are calculated to do our county inestimable injury. Treat him to a coat of tar well besprinkled with feathers and there'll be no more fakes perpetrated.

Over-Work Weakens Your Kidneys.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

All the blood in your body passes through your kidneys once every three minutes. The kidneys are your blood purifiers. They filter out the waste or impurities in the blood. If they are sick or out of order, they fail to do their work. Pains, aches and rheumatism come from excess of uric acid in the blood, due to neglected kidney trouble.

Kidney trouble causes quick or unsteady heart beats, and makes one feel as though they had heart trouble, because the heart is over-working in pumping thick, kidney-poisoned blood through veins and arteries.

It used to be considered that only urinary troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all constitutional diseases have their beginning in kidney trouble. If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail. Write Dr. Kilmer, free, also pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Birmingham, N. Y.

No Knee Breeches for Hogg.

A London cablegram to the New York Tribune says: All arrangements had been completed with United States Ambassador, Joseph Choate, to enable ex-Governor Hogg of Texas to be presented to King Edward at the forthcoming levee, when a hitch occurred, for Mr. Hogg found he must appear in knee breeches, sword, &c., the regulation court dress.

"Never," said Mr. Hogg, "if I cannot appear in the ordinary evening dress of an American citizen I will not appear at all. A pretty sight I would look rigged up in those gawgaws. I have not the faintest idea of trying to revolutionize or even criticize English customs, but blamed if I'll wear another country's uniform—no, not even for the sake of meeting the King."

Would Smash The Club.

If members of the "Hay Fever Association" would use Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, the club would go to pieces, for it always cures this malady, and Asthma, the kind that baffles the doctors—it wholly drives from the system. Thousands of once hopeless sufferers from consumption, pneumonia, bronchitis, and other lung troubles, 50c, $1.00. Trial bottles free at J. Taylor Day, Hazel Green, and S. S. Combs & Sons, Campton, drug stores.

His Money Burned.

The handsome residence of J. Kelly Ballard, at Holy Cross, in Marion county, Ky., was completely destroyed by fire recently, and the occupants narrowly escaped with their lives. Several hundred dollars in money, which had the evening before been paid Mr. Ballard, was burned in the fire. Ballard remarked when he received the money that it was the first time in many years he had kept so large an amount at his home, and that he would feel uneasy until he had brought it to Lebanon the next day and deposited it.

Child Worth Millions.

"My child is worth a million to me," says Mrs. Mary Bird of Harrisburg, Pa., "yet I would have lost her by croup had I not purchased a bottle of One Minute Cough Cure." One Minute Cough Cure is sure cure for croup, croup and throat and lung troubles. An absolutely safe cough cure which acts immediately. The youngest child can take it with entire safety. The little ones like the taste and remember how often it helped them. Every family should have a bottle of One Minute Cough Cure handy. At this season especially it may be needed suddenly.

H. F. PIERATT.

Peach Crop Damaged.

Reports have reached Covington during the past two or three days from the surrounding counties to the effect that the peach crop has been badly damaged by reason of the recent sleet storm and severe weather. Grant and Pendleton counties are said to have suffered more severely than any of the other counties in the northern end of the state. The crop over the entire state will, it is said, be from 15 to 20 per cent short.

The Best Time.

The best time to cure a cough or cold is when you are first affected. A pleasant and sure remedy for sore throat, weak lungs, bronchial soreness, coughing spells, etc., is Gough's Mexican Syrup for coughs and consumption. Be wise in time and keep a bottle in your medicine chest, always handy for immediate use, remembering the old adage, "a stitch in time saves nine." It is a true lung tonic and sells for only 25 cents.

THE SUNNY SOUTH.

This Great Literary Journal Club—led With The Herald.

We publish, elsewhere today the announcement of the SUNNY SOUTH, the great weekly literary periodical of the Southern States. Published in Atlanta, Ga., in the heart of the great south, it bears upon it the impress of its birth place and environment. For more than 25 years the SUNNY SOUTH has been a recognized factor in the field of southern literature. It was established more than a quarter of a century ago as a southern story paper, and was published for a long time as a weekly and then as a monthly.

About one year ago the paper passed under new management, and in less than a year it has jumped from a circulation of 12,000 to 60,000. The first thing the new management did was to make it a weekly publication and to reduce the price to fifty cents per year—less than one cent an issue—and then infuse into its columns all the enterprise and literary ability that money could command or determination secure. In less than a year this remarkable southern literary paper has become national in character and it now has about as many subscribers north of Mason and Dixon's line as it has in the south. Its columns abound in the best current literature of characteristic southern flavor, and no literary periodical published anywhere in the country has succeeded in bringing together as many southern writers of note as has been done by the SUNNY SOUTH.

A striking feature of the SUNNY SOUTH's development is its introduction during the past year of many new story writers who will be heard from in the wider field of the world's literature. In almost every southern state new literary talent has been developed to such an extent as to put the whole country to talking about the SUNNY SOUTH. A few months ago the SUNNY SOUTH offered very handsome prizes for a series of the best short stories by southern writers, and more than five hundred responses were received. Some of the stories then published in the SUNNY SOUTH have been reproduced the world over. Others are now being published by it from week to week.

The fact that the price of this splendid weekly literary periodical is only fifty cents a year has had a wonderful effect in giving it an extensive field for the development of its plans and purposes. Perhaps no literary periodical ever established has made such rapid stride as the SUNNY SOUTH in less than a year.

Mrs. Mary E. Brayan, whose name has been long associated with the SUNNY SOUTH, has been engaged to take full charge of its Woman's Department. Her services will appeal especially to women readers throughout the country, as the striking charm of her own personality pervades every column of her most interesting department.

The distinctive characteristics of southern authors have always been a great charm to their readers. The liberal use of matter by the leading magazines of the United States shows that high regard prevalent for southern literary talent. The quaint stories of Joel Chandler Harris in folk-lore of the southern plantations, and the stories by him and by Thomas Nelson Page, Will Y. Harben, Harry Stillwell Edwards and others of those interesting phases of human character so plentiful in the south, are read with consuming interest and are seized upon by publishers with great avidity.

The literary flavor of the SUNNY SOUTH will be far above the ordinary story paper and an examination of one copy will show clearly and plainly to all its scope in its great special field. Some of the most prominent of the world's writers have been listed for special stories for the SUNNY SOUTH during the current year. It is a pleasure to know that the South has at last secured a literary paper of which the whole country is proud.

The SUNNY SOUTH's growing circulation throughout the Union, and in all parts of it alike is an indication of its widespread field. Its fresh, crisp editorials, social stories from authors of the widest note and growing fame and interesting short stories from every quarter make it acceptable everywhere. It is not a newspaper in any sense, but is devoted exclusively to the field of literature. It will come as a refreshing visitor every week to your home for only 50 cents per year. If you have never seen a copy of it send today for it on a postal card addressed to the SUNNY SOUTH, Atlanta, Ga., giving also the names of six of your neighbors and special friends who may also have this treat.

We are pleased to know that Southern enterprise places this paper in the hands of our people.

Mr. Cooper, Hazel Green, Ky.:

I purchased some of the Vitae Ore of you in the latter part of March, and after taking about a half pint of the Vitae Ore my nerves were as steady as when I was 16 years of age, and I am now past 75. For more than a year I had been trying all the patent medicines and nostrums I could hear of to build myself up, but nothing did me any good until I used Vitae Ore, which my wife brought me from your house. After using it a week I went out and did three days' as hard work as I have done in 25 years, and I was not more fatigued than I was 25 years ago over the same work. It is the grandest medicine in the world, and I want everybody in the mountains to know what it did for me so they may try it. Hoping every one who has that tired feeling incident to old age will buy Vitae Ore of you and give it a fair trial, I remain, thankfully yours for putting me on to this remedy.

JAMES LACY.

I can vouch for every word Mr. Lacy says in the above. I am his wife and bought the medicine of Mr. Cooper for him, though I did not have much faith in it, because we had tried so many things that did no good. I have also used Vitae Ore, and am stronger and in better health than for years, which I attribute to its use.
